

As immigrants, we've made Washington our home. If you're an immigrant experiencing hard times because of COVID-19, and you aren't eligible for federal financial relief or unemployment insurance, this fund is for you.

Apply for the Washington COVID-19 Immigrant Relief Fund and receive a $1,000 one-time direct payment (up to $3,000 per household). The last day to apply is December 6.

You can apply online at www.immigrantreliefwa.org. The application is available in several languages.

Who can apply

To apply, you must meet ALL of the requirements below:

- Live in Washington State
- Be at least 18 years old
- Have been significantly affected by the pandemic (such as losing work, being infected by the virus, or caring for a family member who was infected)
- Not be eligible to receive federal stimulus dollars or unemployment insurance money due to immigration status

How to apply

1. Before you apply, you should:
 - Gather your required identity and residency documentation. You can review the list of approved materials at www.immigrantreliefwa.org/faq#req-docs
 - Calculate your household's average monthly 2020 income.
2. Click the "Apply Now" button. Then navigate to the "Register" button and create a Survey Monkey Apply Account. A few minutes after you sign up, you will get an email to verify your account. Please make sure you verify your account.
3. Complete all of the application questions. This may take some time. You can save your application and come back at any time.
4. Once you are finished with your application, find the large green "SUBMIT" button to send in your application.

After you apply, please make sure to check your email inbox or the junk email folder for your confirmation. You will also get a text message confirmation the day you submit your application. You may log back in and check the status to see if your application is being reviewed and if you are awarded the funding. Please only submit your application one time.
